Location/Address: WASHINGTON ST

Narrative:

Caller advised his wife who now lives at a separate location entered his property without his permission. His daughter was supposed to come after 1pm to gather belongings. The wife and daughter arrived before 1pm with another male and walked around the home. He was upstairs and could hear them. He claimed he was not sure if they took anything of his. They were no longer at the location. He then said he did not want to speak with an officer and wanted his phone call documented. He advised he is contacting his attorney and then hung up.

23-11427 1232 MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITY RESPONSIBLE AGENCY NOTIFIED
Location/Address: MANOR DR

Narrative:

Caller originally requesting an ambulance, said that she was getting a headache from a decaying rat in a trap. complaining that maintenance has been called but they haven't come, she said she can't get on her knees to look at the traps. I clarified and asked if she needed an ambulance, and she said she wasn't sure if she really did, as long as someone could come by and take the rats out of her home.

Narrative:

she said she had high blood pressure and history of a blood clot in her lung. She was advised that we would call maintenance for her, and if she felt that she really needed an ambulance that she could call us back and we would send one.

Narrative:

Called C4, he confirmed to try maintenance first, and if she needs medical she will call and we will go.

Narrative:

If contact is made with the mother, she does have an EBW

Narrative:

They are out with female in question
